

Our Dead.

LANDOW.—Mrs Henry Landow died Dec. 30, 1893. Aged 65 years, 2 months and 1 day. She was a consistent member of the church of God at Cedarvalley, Ohio, where the funeral sermon was preached to a full house by the writer. M. S. Landow was an excellent woman and highly esteemed by all who knew her. W. M. KEIFER.

RITTER.—Died, November 23, 1893, of consumption, Brother Josiah Ritter, aged 66 years, 1 month and 18 days. The subject of our sketch was married to Anna Messenger, whose maiden name was Shaffer, in the year 1855, she being the widow of Hira Messenger, a minister of the German Baptist Brethren church. He died at A. M. held at Berlin, Somerset county, Pa., and was buried in the Berlin cemetery, near Berlin. Father was a faithful member of the German Baptist church for 37 years, being baptised by Elder John Nicholson in the Youghhegheny River, near Dawson, Pa. Unto this union were born four children, one girl and three boys, viz: Mary Margaret, John S., Abram J., and Jacob M. being the youngest of the happy family. Mary M. died when an infant, and Abram J. when quite small. Hence, only mother and two sons are left to mourn the loss of a dear father and husband who died in the hope of a blessed immortality. Our mother who is now three score and ten years, will soon pass over the Jordan of death to meet dear father, who is waiting and watching for her beyond this vale of tears. Dear mother and dear brother let us hold out faithful, that when we are called over yonder that we can meet father, brother and sister, who are happy beyond this vale of tears. It will only be but a short time here below to battle with Satan until we will be called home.

Funeral sermon by J. K. Eicher, of the German Baptist Brethren, to a large concourse of people at the Fairview church, near Kecksburg, Pa., from the 90 Psalm and later part of the 9th verse, which reads as follows: "We spend our years as a tale that is told."

Father was ailing for several years but not bedfast till a day or two previous to his death. We deeply feel our loss, which is his eternal gain. J. M. RITTER.

The author says in his preface: "So many books have been written about Christ, telling people to come to Christ, yet failing to give a tangible idea of how Christ is to be found. We thought of letting this work fill that place: Tell people of Christ, when to seek for salvation and how to obtain it." We think the little work meets the want very well.

WEST MECCA, OHIO, Oct. 27, 1893.—S. E. Dubbel: Sir, Out of the six doz. Cough and Croup Cure, you sent me not one bottle was returned.

MRS. E. M. SIMPSON.
ROSSVILLE, IND., August 22, 1893.—S. E. Dubbel, Waynesboro, Pa. Dear

Sir: After we have used largely in our own family, and have sold hundreds of dollars worth of your medicines, and do know of their merits, justice seems to demand that we should recommend, them to the public. As for the Cough and Croup Cure, it is the best remedy for coughs and colds we have ever used, and is an excellent antidote for that dreadful monster, La Grippe. The Carbolic Ointment is a noble remedy for old sores, cuts, burns, etc., but the Red Thyme Pain Cure has no equal, to our knowledge, for aches of all kinds; bruises, sprains, burns, pains in the stomach, back, head, etc. Where it has been introduced, people say that they cannot do without it. The demand for it is growing rapidly.

J. H. SWIHART.
